Grandpa&#039;s Story Available Here General Posted by: skenow Posted on : Wed, 23 Aug 2006

A compiled version of what Grandpa (Albert Kenow - 'Pa') may have experienced has been written and was previewed by people attending this year's reunion. That story is now also available online in the 'Our Stories' section, and also as a download. Take your pick on how you would like to view it.

The download version will allow you to print a copy and place it in your family history book with your other family tree pages and documents. Or, you can just read it online.
